John T. Rogers of Jennings Lake, a thrifty farmer, was in the city yesterday on business.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Weaver, Sunday, October 8th, a son. Friends extend congratulations.

Mrs. W. H. Lee and daughter of Melrose were among those who came to Gainesville shopping yesterday.

J. M. Guinn of Alachua, one of the progressive farmers of that section, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

Wm. M. Yates of Fannin and Hubert W. Simmons of Bell were in the city Saturday on business connected with the United States land office.

M. D. Dupuis, a prosperous farmer of Flemington, while en route to High Springs, spent a short while with his daughter, Mrs. D. T. Davis, yesterday.

John Bennett has commenced the erection of two cottages on Plaza street. They will be completed as soon as possible, one of them being already rented.

Everything about the Odd Fellows' Home and Sanitarium in this city looks very neat and inviting, and it is expected to have it open for guests about the first of November.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McGriff of Micanopy were in the city Sunday to visit relatives and friends. Mr. McGriff has entered the drug trade in that place and is well pleased with the outlook.

Col. J. D. Matheson and wife have returned from a visit at Austell, Ga., where they went for a short rest and to enjoy the curative properties of the famous Bowlin Lithia Springs water.

Friends of Dr. W. Lassiter, formerly of this city but now residing in Louisiana, are glad to welcome him again to his old home. He is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. J. B. Dell.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Landress and children of Rochelle were in the city Saturday. Mrs. Landress and children were en route to Alachua, where they will spend a few days as guests of relatives.

Mrs. W. H. Palmer went to Jacksonville on Sunday for treatment. She will be with her adopted daughter while there and her many friends in the city hope to see her return soon much improved in health.

The Tavares Herald of August 6th says that "J. D. Stringfellow of Gainesville was in Tavares this week on business. Mr. Stringfellow recently purchased the turpentine interests of Mel-drim & Lewis at Minneola."

W. P. Tompkins of Lochloosa was in town yesterday and made The Sun a pleasant call. He is one of the oldest and best citizens of that section of the county, and his Gainesville friends always extend him a hearty welcome.

Dr. H. Bonten of Connecticut, who was at the Odd Fellows' Sanitarium last winter, arrived in the city on Saturday to remain during the winter. He is stopping at the Magnolia for the present, the Home not being open for the reception of guests.

J. G. Kellum, secretary of the State Educational Board, was in the city yesterday on business and left for Bartow, where he goes to attend to the paraphernalia and apparatus belonging to the State that was used in the military school at that place.

Among the visitors to this city is John V. Denton, formerly a resident here but now engaged in the wholesale commission business in New York, where he is prospering. His numerous friends are glad to welcome him, and to know that he is doing well.

A. McDavid of LaCrosse was greeting old friends in Gainesville yesterday. He was for many years a citizen of this city and his numerous friends were glad of the opportunity to again cross palms with him. The Sun acknowledges a pleasant call from the gentleman.

A. M. Cushman returned Saturday from the meeting of the Grand Encampment of the I. O. O. F. at Philadelphia and reports a very pleasant time. There was nothing much but routine work transacted at the meeting and the reports show the order in a prosperous condition.

Jesse E. Buritz, city editor of The Sun, has been released from duty on the local work for a few weeks in order to give him time to devote to the Industrial Edition, upon which he is now actively engaged and to which his entire time will be devoted. Mr. W. W. Ashley has taken his place as city editor and any favors shown him will be duly appreciated by him and the manager of The Sun.

Among the prominent visitors to Gainesville yesterday was Postmaster S. O. Dell of Alachua, who was here on business. He made The Sun an agreeable call. Notwithstanding that Mr. Dell is probably the youngest postmaster in the State, he fills that responsible position with efficiency and satisfaction to the patrons of the office, and he has been complimented along these lines by high authority.

Judge Mason and wife returned on Monday from a most enjoyable visit in the Old Dominion, spending some time at Washington, D. C. Both the Judge and his estimable wife have much improved from the effects of the pleasant trip, and his Honor says that he feels about ten years younger. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Mrs. J. S. Haddock, who will remain about two weeks to visit her old friends in the city and vicinity.

READ THIS.

MOBILE, ALA., Dec. 24, 1899.

Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: Having tried different doctors and their remedies for several years for back and kidney troubles, I found nothing successful until taking "The Texas Wonder." Hall's Great Discovery, and, being rapidly cured, the old saying with railroad men is "God bless the man who invented the Pullman sleeping car," but I say "God bless the inventor of Hall's Texas Wonder."

Yours truly,

W. B. CLARK,

M. & O. R. R. Co., Mobile, Ala.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

Lee Graham, assistant cashier in the First National Bank, left yesterday for a short trip to Washington and points in Virginia and West Virginia.

Quite a large number of our people enjoyed a picnic at the Sink yesterday, many of them going by the Coast Line. A pleasant day and a delightful time was the outcome.

Ira J. Carter of Newberry, one of the most successful and energetic business men in the West End, was a visitor to Gainesville yesterday. The Sun acknowledges a pleasant call from the gentleman.

An alarm of fire was turned in from Box 52 at 11:25 a. m. yesterday, which proved to be a small blaze in the rear of a negro shanty near the Seaboard depot. The department responded, but the fire was extinguished in a little less than two minutes.

Friends in this city will be pained to learn of the death of Frederick William, the infant son of Dr. and Mrs. William Sutherland, which occurred at Live Oak yesterday. The remains will come through this city today, en route to Micanopy, where the funeral will be held this afternoon. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents.

The members of the Board of County Commissioners, consisting of F. F. Paulling of Lakeview, J. G. Dampier of Hague, and J. L. Townsend of Rex, were in the city yesterday to attend a special meeting of that body, for the purpose of inspecting the books of the County Assessor, but as they were not ready, another meeting will be called.

The Metropolis of the 10th Inst. bears information that John O. LaFontaine, city editor of The Times-Union, has resigned and gone to Atlanta for a few days. Mr. LaFontaine was for years connected with The Sun, and has many friends in this city and section. He is one of the best writers in the State, and it is hoped he will decide to remain in Florida.

Among those registered in the city Monday were N. J. and John Q. Tilghman of Palatka. These gentlemen are extensive manufacturers of cypress shingles, having been engaged in the business in Palatka for years. They recently purchased a mill at Cedar Key and were en route to that point to arrange for operating same, which has been idle for some time. There are no better business men in the State than the Tilghmans.

Mrs. E. M. Walton has returned from Asheville, N. C., where she has most delightfully spent the summer at the Haywood Inn, under the management of Mrs. J. N. Marsh, who is well known to many of our people.

J. H. Osteen of Cow Creek was in town yesterday. He is the member of the county Democratic committee of his precinct and one of the best men from a section of the county noted for its big-hearted people.

H. M. Moran and B. T. Beckham were in the city yesterday from Campville. They report entirely too much rain in their section during the past week, which has greatly interfered with the picking of cotton.

M. E. Jolly was out to his farm near Orange Heights, and discovered that some time Saturday night some parties had helped themselves to about a wagon-load of his cane crop. They dropped a fan in the field which the owner can have by calling and proving property.

The demand for new houses still continues to exceed the supply. The two that are being erected on University street by W. N. Wilson, at a cost of $1,500, each have been rented and will be occupied as soon as possible. They will have all the modern improvements.

The big fall millinery opening of George W. Hyde, which will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, October 18th and 19th, will outclass anything previously held in this section. Ladies from the country and adjacent towns especially requested to attend. The latest styles at lowest prices.

Capt. J. N. Strobhar writes the editor of The Sun that he is detained in New York, owing to the absence of President Erwin from the city, and requests his paper forwarded to his New York address, 229 Broadway, care Wilbur Mercantile Agency, until further notice. He also requests public announcement that his house is not for sale nor rent, neither in whole or part. His letter bears the information that October 6th, the date of his epistle, was the first day he has been able to write for some time.

The big Industrial Edition of The Sun, of which 20,000 will be printed and distributed to homeseekers and others, promises to be a big success, as our merchants and manufacturers and professional men, realizing its good, are coming loyally to the support of the venture with advertising. The solicitor reports gratifying success, and believes that it will prove the most successful venture of the kind ever introduced here. The main purpose of the publisher is to distribute this number at the State Fair, which will be visited by thousands of people looking for homes in Florida. To this class especially will the Industrial Edition appeal.
